

THE MONT BLANC CHALLENGE TOUR DU MONT BLANC TREK & ENVIRONMENTAL PROJECT

The perfect 'no fly' challenge! Travel by train to the Alps and trek part of the Tour du Mont Blanc. This spectacular circuit around Mont Blanc is one of the world's classic hikes. From the massif of Mont Blanc seven valleys extend into France, Italy and Switzerland and each retains its own unique culture, architecture and landscape. Each day hike up to the ridges and descend into the valleys below with time to enjoy views of glaciers, peaks and meadows. After completing the trek, spend a day with a local environmental association.

A photograph of two hikers on a dirt trail in a mountainous region. The hiker in the foreground is wearing a red shirt, a blue backpack, and a grey cap, using a trekking pole. The hiker behind is wearing a white hat, a yellow backpack, and a dark shirt, also using a trekking pole. The trail is surrounded by green coniferous trees and leads towards a vast mountain landscape with snow-capped peaks and glaciers under a blue sky with some clouds.
